

Providing a brighter future to children and their communities around the globe.

Global Humanitaria USA seeks a Video Editor/Digital Media Intern to support the US office with activities connecting Global Humanitaria's work around the world to target audiences, media, peer organizations and the general public. A film student or recent graduate would be ideal. We are looking for someone with the experience and equipment to help us create visibility for Global Humanitaria.

We would like to bring to the GH team in the US, a person with the technical and editing skills to craft, create and edit together existing material into great 1-3 minute pieces. The intern needs to be resourceful to extract parts and bits and create something nice for use on the website as well as our Facebook and YouTube/Vimeo pages.

Office environment:

GH has a solid presence in the world since 1998, and has opened its office in the US recently; therefore much enthusiasm and new ideas to engage with the US audience are welcome! Office environment is busy, but we have a relaxed and friendly environment and will value much you contributions and commitment. Although GH has been working around the world for many years, we are kind of a star-up in the USA and are a very small team of committed individuals.

Responsibilities:

- Work with 2 other interns (fundraising and communications) to brainstorm and storyboard creative concepts for videos, including promotional campaign videos to be published in YouTube/Vimeo and Facebook
- Develop animated pieces for our website and social media channels
- Conceptualize and craft a special "thank you" video for donors/partners

Qualifications Required:

- Knowledge of video production and editing
- In pursuit of an Associate, Bachelor or Graduate degree at an Accredited Institution in Digital Media, Video Production, or Computer Science, with a strong understanding of computers and multimedia applications
- Knowledge of Final Cut Studio and the Adobe Creative Suite
- Knowledge of video compression for interactive and online programs

- An understanding of technical aspects of video and audio compression
- Ability to come up with innovative concepts for videos to spread awareness about our work
- Will need to use own laptop with programs for editing
- Self-motivated and enthusiastic
- Commitment for poverty alleviation and human rights

Start Date:

Position open until filled, requires a 3 month commitment. Please, if you cannot commit to this duration, do not apply as we make an effort to respond to each candidate and to bring someone to the team.

Hours:

8 – 12 hours/week, preferably once a week in the office. Some hours can be completed at home.

Compensation:

This is an unpaid/Volunteer internship.

To Apply:

Please send a cover letter, resume and, if possible, a link to a short piece/sample of your work to info@globalhumanitariausa.org

We will review every application and will respond to all candidates.
